ABAI Self-Nomination Application

ABAI Board of Directors Criteria

ABAI diplomats who wish to submit an application for the ABAI board position must meet the following criteria:

• a physician duly licensed to practice medicine
• a member of at least one of the ABAI sponsoring organizations
• willing to abide by all ABAI policies
• initial certification by either the ABIM or ABP, as well as the ABAI
• currently participating in the ABAI MOC program and MOC status must be “Meeting MOC Requirements” at the time of application submission as well as throughout their term on the Board, and must be meeting or above the threshold for the CAP Program
• The ABAI board member is required to serve one term (6 years).

Diplomates applying to serve on the ABAI board of directors must be willing to do the following:

• read and acknowledge the Non-Disclosure Agreement
• abide by the ABAI Conflict of Interest Policy
• abide by the ABAI Speaking Engagement Guidelines
• agree to write questions for any category that they’re assigned

CAP Exemption

Board members are exempt from taking CAP while serving on the board, and for two years after serving on the board. Following those two years, the former board member will be required to participate in CAP. However, the board member will be required to simultaneously maintain the following while serving on the board and thereafter:

• Part I: Professional Standing
• Part II: Lifelong Learning and Self-Assessment
• Part IV: Quality Improvement
